Some drunken man boarded the Anemone the other day and ruined Captain Tut's yacht prize certificate. Viggo Jacobsen sat up all night and made him another.

Lewis & Co. are the authority for stating that there is no foundation whatever for the report in circulation of a consolidation between that firm and H. May & Co.

Gifford Pinchot writes to friends here that he is very sorry that he cannot come to Honolulu this summer, being detained by business on the mainland. He hopes to visit the islands early next year.

The Charles Dudoit reported in yesterday's paper as having been jailed for assaulting his wife is not, it is hardly necessary to say, Captain Charles Dudoit. It is a half-white who was adopted by his brother and for lack of a name was given that of the veteran skipper.

Malcolm McIntyre of Bishop & Company's insurance department, Donald McIntyre of Moanalua and Miss Jeanette McIntyre of Bishop & Company's Savings bank, will leave on the Alameda next Wednesday for San Francisco en route to Scotland, where a family reunion will be held. The party will return to Honolulu in about four months.

Allan Herbert entertained the night men of the Rapid Transit Company yesterday at a barbecue at his Kalia place. There was a large crowd, not only of car operators, but of wives, families and relatives generally, and a good time was had. On Monday the day men will be entertained in a similar manner.

Cards have been received from Palo Alto, California, announcing the marriage of Mr. Harry Jeffrey to Miss Grace Elizabeth Jeffreys, on Tuesday, June 26. The couple will be at home at Shanghai, China, after January 1. Both the young people resided in Honolulu until recently. The former was chief clerk of the Moana Hotel for about two years. He will now engage in business in the Far East.

Articles of incorporation were filed yesterday for the Hilo Pineapple Company, Ltd. The capital stock is $25,000, which may be increased to one hundred thousand, and the new company takes over the Lyman, Kelsey and Andrews places, forming a pineapple plantation. The officers are F. S. Lyman, president; L. A. Andrews, vice-president; Levi C. Lyman, secretary; H. E. Kelsey, treasurer; D. E. Metzger, auditor; and Thomas Mutch, J. D. Lewis and N. C. Wilfong, directors.

It is healthful

Physicians will tell you that gas as a fuel is not injurious to the health, that it causes less heat in the kitchen and is, consequently, a benefit to health because there is less liability to cold through changes in the temperature.

There are a dozen or so other reasons why gas should be used not the least of which is the question of economy.

Beauty and the Bug!

There is nothing prettier than a bunch of long stemmed American Beauty Roses—when they are perfect, but if they are as full of holes as last year's seal-skin there are other things more attractive. Honolulu should be a bower of roses and would be were it not for the ravages of the beetles. Get rid of the pest and the roses will bloom again.

Fifty cents worth of Hobron's Arsenate of Lead will make enough of the spray to last a long time and will rid your locality of the beetles.
